

Walking The Path with the Twice Exceptional Learner:

Understanding the Paradox of Exceptional Strengths and Weaknesses

Professional Development Materials for Educators and Administrators

A Collaboration between the Individual Differences in Learning Association, Inc.
(IDLA) and the Howard County Public School System, Maryland

Authors: Katharina I. Boser, Ph.D.

Trish Budd

Copyright pending 2007© Individual Differences in Learning Association (IDLA, Inc.)

IDLA strives to obtain research-based, up-to-date knowledge for its publications and workshops. The recommendations contained herein are the result of extensive author research and review. Obviously, any recommendations must be held up against individual circumstances at hand. To the best of our knowledge any recommendations included by the author (s) reflect currently accepted practice. However, these recommendations cannot be considered universal and complete. The authors and publisher repudiate any responsibility for unfavorable effects that result from information, recommendations, undetected omissions or errors. Professionals using this publication should research other original sources of authority as well.

The purpose of these materials is to provide a further forum for discussion and information gathering and thus presents a variety of viewpoints. The views expressed or implied in these materials should not be interpreted as official positions of IDLA, Inc. or its collaborators.

@ Copyright pending 1997 by IDLA, Inc.. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopy, recording, or any information storage and retrieval system, without permission from IDLA.

Acknowledgements:

IDLA wishes to thank the Horizon Foundation and the Howard County Public School System for all their efforts in making these materials possible.

IDLA also wishes to thank those involved in the initial development and production of the workshops from 2002-2005 including, Patty Daley, Diana Mitchell, Tom Payne, Penny Zimring, Emily Hurd, Ellen Hill, Linda Jensen, Trish Budd, Meg Mekelburg, Laurie Rush, Donna Weaver, Debbie Bleakney and Mike Fennessey, Sherry Berke, Lynne D'Autrechy.

In particular, IDLA thanks to Patty Daley, Penny Zimring, Emily Hurd, Ellen Hill of the HCPSS for all their efforts in helping to edit and produce the materials in 2006 and 2007. Thanks to the ARL studio staff of the HCPSS Michael Dubbs and Brian Bassett who provided their studio and expertise in creating the video materials and to those IDLA members who helped edit the materials including Karen Kyger, Amy Lechter-Siegel and Laura Shovan. Finally, a special thanks to those students who generously donated their time to edit video and other materials: Nolan Walter, Julie Kuhn, Lisa Gipsov, Hiroko Nishimura, Eric Lin, Stephanie Seo.

The following images were used by permission for our overview DVD:

"Dragon Eyes" image from cover image by Via Keller from Lynn, George T., & Lynn, Joanne B. (2006) Nurturing the Spirit of the Wild, Odd, and Oppositional Child – Revised Edition Jessica Kingsley Publishing, Philadelphia. Image of "label-burdened" child by Buck Jones (see www.buckjonesillustrator.com) as found on (pg. 166) of Kreger Silverman, Linda (2002) Upside-Down Brilliance: The Visual-Spatial Child. Denver, Co: DeLeon Publishing, Denver.

Mark Twain "mask" Illustration from American Examiner magazine published shortly after Clemens' death in 1910 captioned "Behind the mask of the humorist was the face of the philosopher." Illustration from the Dave Thomson collection.